ABUJA

Nº 486/2023 JISS/PGL

The Embassy of Spain in Abuja presents its compliments to the Economic Community of West African States (ECOWAS) and has the honour to inform of the 2nd call for applications for 2023 for the Sub-Saharan Africa Women Researchers Programme of the University of Alicante, Spain.

The Programme is promoted by the Office of the Vice President for International Relations and Development Cooperation of the University of Alicante, Spain, in collaboration with the Ministry of Participation, Transparency, Cooperation and Democratic Quality, of the Valencian Regional Government in Spain.

The grants are aimed at women researchers in the pre-doctoral or post-doctoral stage who, being nationals of one of the countries established in this call, need to complete their training by carrying out short-term research stays at the University of Alicante for the development of their doctoral thesis or research.

Details of the current programme are as follows:

- Deadline for applications: since July 27th until September 8th
- Contact information: p.codesarrollo@ua.es
- Period of stay at the university: three to six months (2023-2024)
- Number of grants: up to 13
- Detailed information on the current programme is available on the website: <https://sri.ua.es/en/cooperacion/convocatorias/m-africa/women-researchers-sub-saharan.html>

The Embassy of Spain in Abuja avails itself of the opportunity to renew to the Economic Community of West African States (ECOWAS) the assurances of its highest consideration.
